Delivering strong GEDSI outcomes

APTC works hard to address the barriers to training and employment for women, people living with disabilities and individuals from rural and remote areas. We work in consultation and collaboration with governments, peak bodies, associations, and individuals who advocate for inclusivity and accessibility.

APTC (Kiribati) has initiated a range of successful and innovative projects to tackle barriers and forms of exclusion.

We have:

- Met student recruitment and marketing targets equitable outcomes for women, persons with disabilities and students from remote areas.
- Run GEDSI session for Kiribati students mobilised for studies at APTC locations.

Labour Mobility

APTC supports labour mobility by delivering targeted training and assisting our partners to develop high-quality training programs that provide skills in demand by Australian employers.

This includes:

- Reviewing and implementing a training profile that supports national and international skills demand and net skills gain.
- Representation at relevant labour mobility regional and sub-regional meetings, such as the annual Pacific Australia Labour Mobility meeting and other conferences and seminars.
- Ensuring country ownership by engaging and collaborating with key national labour mobility stakeholders, such as government ministries, national training providers, labour-sending units, civil society organisations, employers, and industry bodies.

Our contextualised ready-for-work training targets potential and existing labour mobility recruits identified by the Kiribati Department of Labour from their work-ready pool to maximise employment outcomes upon conclusion of the training.

APTC supports TVET Partners such as KIT to develop the capability of their training staff through professional development workshops.
